INFORMATION ABOUT THE NORTH CAROLINA REGISTER AND ADMINISTRATIVE CODE

NORTH CAROLINA REGISTER

The North Carolina Register is published monthly and contains information relating to agency, executive, legislative and judicial actions required by or affecting Chapter 150B of the General Statutes. All proposed administrative rules and amendments filed under Chapter 150B must be published in the Register. The Register will typically comprise approximately one hundred pages per issue of legal text.

State law requires that a copy of each issue be provided free of charge to each county in the state and to various state officials and institutions. The North Carolina Register is available by yearly subscription at a cost of ninety-five dollars ($95.00) for 12 issues.

Requests for subscription to the North Carolina Register should be directed to the Office of Administrative Hearings, P. O. Drawer 11666, Raleigh, N. C. 27604, Attn: Subscriptions.

ADOPTION, AMENDMENT, AND REPEAL OF RULES

An agency intending to adopt, amend, or repeal a rule must first publish notice of the proposed action in the North Carolina Register. The notice must include a reference to the Statutory Authority for the action; the time and place of the public hearing and a statement of how public comments may be submitted to the agency either at the hearing or otherwise; the text of the proposed rule or amendment; and the proposed effective date.

The Director of the Office of Administrative Hearings has authority to publish a summary, rather than the full text, of any amendment which is considered to be too lengthy. In such case, the full text of the rule containing the proposed amendment will be available for public inspection at the Rules Division of the Office of Administrative Hearings and at the office of the promulgating agency.

Following publication of the proposal in the North Carolina Register, at least 60 days must elapse before the agency may take action on the proposed adoption, amendment or repeal.

When final action is taken, the promulgating agency must file any adopted or amended rule with the Office of Administrative Hearings. If it differs substantially from the proposed form published as part of the public notice, the adopted version will again be published in the North Carolina Register.

A rule, or amended rule, cannot become effective earlier than the first day of the second calendar month after the adoption is filed.

Proposed action on rules may be withdrawn by the promulgating agency at any time before final action is taken by the agency.

TEMPORARY RULES

Under certain conditions of an emergency nature, some agencies may issue temporary rules. A temporary rule becomes effective when adopted and remains in effect for the period specified in the rule or 120 days, whichever is less. An agency adopting a temporary rule must begin normal rule-making procedures on the permanent rule at the same time the temporary rule is adopted.

NORTH CAROLINA ADMINISTRATIVE CODE

The North Carolina Administrative Code (NCAC) is a compilation and index of the administrative rules of 25 state agencies and 38 occupational licensing boards. The NCAC comprises approximately 15,000 letter size, single spaced pages of material of which approximately 35% is changed annually. Compilation and publication of the NCAC is mandated by G.S. 150B-63(b).

The Code is divided into Titles and Chapters. Each state agency is assigned a separate title which is further broken down by chapters. Title 21 is designated for occupational licensing boards.

The NCAC is available in two formats.

- (1) In looseleaf pages at a minimum cost of two dollars and 50 cents ($2.50) for 10 pages or less, plus fifteen cents ($0.15) per each additional page.
- (2) On microfiche. The microfiche edition is revised semi-annually (March and October) and can be purchased for forty dollars ($40.00) per edition. Due to the volume of the Code, the complete copy can only be purchased on microfiche. The NCAC on microfiche is updated monthly by publication of a "List of Rules Affected" which sets out rules filed the previous month, the action taken, and the effective date of the change. This list is published in the North Carolina Register.

Requests for looseleaf pages of rules or the NCAC on microfiche should be directed to the Office of Administrative Hearings.

NOTE

The foregoing is a generalized statement of the procedures to be followed. For specific statutory language, it is suggested that Articles 2 and 5 of Chapter 150B of the General Statutes be examined carefully.

Dear Mr. Rose:

This refers to the nine annexations (Ordinance Nos. 0-86-14, 0-86-15, 0-86-16, 0-86-17, 0-86-18, 0-86-19, 0-86-20, 0-86-32, and 0-86-46) and the designation of the annexed areas to Wards 5 and 7 for the City of Rocky Mount in Edgecombe and Nash Counties, North Carolina, submitted to the Attorney General pursuant to Section 5 of the Voting Rights Act of 1965, as amended, 42 U.S.C. 1973c. We received your submissions on July 14 and August 18, 1986.

ATTORNEY GENERAL'S OPINIONS

[Opinions of the Attorney General that interpret or affect Chapter 150B of the General Statutes are published as requested by G.S. 150B-63(d1).]

State of North Carolina
Department of Justice
P. O. Box 629
Raleigh, NC 27602-0629

SUBJECT: Administrative Procedures Act; Rulemaking Requirements; Employee Insurance Committees

REQUESTED BY: Elizabeth H. Drury
Director, Office of Legislative and Legal Affairs
Department of Human Resources

QUESTIONS: (1) Does the APA definition of a "rule" in N.C. Gen. Stat. 150B-2(8)a include procedures to be followed in fulfilling the statutory mandates of N.C. Gen. Stat. 58-194.3?

(2) If the answer to question 1 is "yes", does the Department of Human Resources have the requisite rulemaking authority under N.C. Gen. Stat. 150B-9 to adopt rules pertaining to N.C. Gen. Stat. 58-194.3 for all twenty-four payroll units within the Department of Human Resources and would the adoption of such rules be consistent with the autonomy provisions in N.C. Gen. Stat. 58-194.3?

(3) If the answers to questions 1 and 2 are yes, are the following functions prescribed by N.C. Gen. Stat. 58-194.3 proper subjects for rulemaking:

- a. The manner in which the Insurance Committee determines employees' needs and desires;
- b. The manner in which the Insurance Committee publishes or otherwise requests proposals from insurance providers;
- c. The manner in which the Insurance Committee receives, considers and selects insurance proposals submitted to it; and
- d. Contractual provisions to be included in the contract with the provider selected by the Insurance Committee including contractual provisions pertaining to the term of the contract, whether the selected provider is the exclusive provider of a particular type of insurance, and the procedures for soliciting business from employees in the payroll unit?

CONCLUSION: (1) Yes, if the Employee Insurance Committee establishes procedures to supplement those G.S. 58-194.3.

(2) No, the rules would be adopted by the respective committees and organized within the Department's chapter in the North Carolina Administrative Code. The Department would act within its authority if procedures were established for the selection of committee members.

(3) Yes, if the committee establishes formal or informal procedures on any listed subject and requires compliance therewith by its members or contract providers.

G.S.58-194.3, enacted in the 1985 Session of the General Assembly, required the establishment of Employee Insurance Committees by the heads of payroll units. The duties and powers of the committees are set forth in the enabling legislation. The 1986 amendments to the statute are not pertinent to this inquiry.

G.S.58-194.3(b) provides the method for appointment of committee members. That duty and power is vested in the head of the payroll unit. The head of the payroll unit is charged with duty of selecting a committee that is "fairly representative of the work force."

The queries raised require further refinement to provide better analytical clarity. Accordingly, new subsidiary questions are stated and addressed in the remainder of the opinion.

The predicate question to Question 1 is "Must Employee Insurance Committees adopt regulations that more specifically detail procedures to be used in the discharge of their duties as a prerequisite to exercising their statutorily conferred powers?" The answer to that query is "No." The enabling statutes are sufficiently specific to permit operation without further procedures and do not condition exercise of the authority on the prior adoption of regulations. The second issue raised by Question 1 is "When must a committee adopt regulations?" The answer to that issue derives from Chapter 150B. G.S. 150B-2(8a), the definition of "rule," must be read in conjunction with G.S. 150B-11(1) to comprehend the full breadth of the term "rule". When the two sections are read together, it is apparent that any procedures, whether formal or informal, that directly or substantially affect the rights or procedures or non-agency persons must be adopted as rules. As G.S. 150B-11(1) indicates, any forms developed by the committees for use in performance of their duties must be listed in duly adopted regulations. Thus, when the committees establish procedures that affect the rights or procedures of others, they must be codified as rules. Should the committees elect to operate by the procedural process established in the enabling statutes, no rule adoptions are necessary.

The second query likewise raises several issues. G.S. 58-194.3 does not include a specific grant of rulemaking authority. As the prefatory paragraphs indicate, it confers powers and duties on both the committee and the head of the payroll unit. Our appellate courts have recognized that state agencies inherently have the power to take actions necessary to the discharge of their duties when the statutory authority has not been specifically conferred. In re Community Association, 300 NC, 267, 280, 266 S.E.2d (1980); Charlotte Liberty Mutual Ins. Co. v. State ex. rel Lanier, 16 NC App 381, 192 SE2d 57 (1972). When that principle is read with the requirements of G.S. 150B-2(8a) and -11(1), it is apparent that every state agency has the inherent authority and duty to draft necessary regulations. Since the committees have rule making and limited quasi-judicial powers [see G.S. 58-194(b)], they are "agencies" within the meaning of G.S. 150B-2(1). (see footnote below)

The Administrative Procedure Act contains a significant, and controlling, limit on the exercise of rulemaking authority by agencies.

Each agency shall adopt, amend, suspend or repeal its rules in accordance with the procedures specified in this Article and pursuant to authority delegated by law and in full compliance with its duties and delegations. No agency may adopt any rule that implements or interprets any statute or legislative enactment unless the power, duty, or authority to carry out the provisions of the statute or enactment is specifically conferred on the agency in the enactment, nor may any agency make any rule enlarging the scope of any trade or profession subject to licensing. G.S. 150B-9(b).

In the present matter, the Department's rulemaking authority would be limited to oversight of its payroll unit heads in the exercise of their authority to select committee members. To the extent the Department's financial division imposes budget policies and procedures on insurance providers, they are exempt from the definition of rule. See G.S. 150B-2(8a), b. and d. However, any forms used to implement this aspect of the payroll deduction program may need to be listed in rules to satisfy G.S. 150B-11(1). The Department's rulemaking authority is further established by the general authority conferred on Department heads by G.S. 143B-10. Accordingly, items specified in Question 3 are within the scope of the rule-making authority of the Employee Insurance Committee rather than the Department or the payroll unit heads.

LACY H. THORNBURG, Attorney General
Daniel F. McLawhorn
Special Deputy Attorney General

FOOTNOTE: The functions of the entity determine whether it is an "agency" rather than the omission of the word "committee" from the definition of "agency" at G.S. 150B-2(1). Commissioner of Insurance v. Rate Bureau, 300 NC 381, 269 SE2d 547, (1980); State v. Matthews, 270 NC 35, 153 SE2d 791 (1967). Compare G.S. 150B-2(1) to the definition of "public body" in the Open Meetings Law at G.S. 143B-318.10 which includes the term "committee."

.1803 PROCEDURE: ONE YEAR PRIOR TO INMATE'S RELEASE DATE

The following steps should be followed during the year prior to the inmate's release date:

(1) Approximately 15 months prior to the inmate's release date, the analyst should request that the Division of Adult Probation and Parole conduct an interview on the individual using a computerized interview form provided by the analyst. The analyst will allow 30 days for the completion of this interview.

(2) The Division of Prisons will be provided with a list of all inmates sentenced under the Fair Sentencing Act who have one year remaining to serve prior to their release date. Division of Prisons officials will screen this list of individuals as provided in 5 NCAC 2F .2004. The Classification Services Section of the Division of Prisons will provide a list of individuals certified eligible for parole under G.S. 148-4.1 to the Parole Commission.

.1804 REVIEW BY PAROLE COMMISSION ANALYST

(a) Upon receipt of the list of inmates certified eligible for parole by the Secretary of Correction, the Parole Commission Analyst will obtain the inmate file and conduct a review.

(b) The Parole Commission Analyst will prepare a parole memorandum for each inmate recommended for the Parole Commission's review for possible approval.

History Note: Filed as a Temporary Amendment Eff. November 19, 1986, for a Period of 44 Days to Expire on January 1, 1987; Filed as a Temporary Rule Eff.
